Suffolk Court is an oasis in paradise, surrounded on three sides by water. It is located in the Bahamas' second city of Freeport on Grand Bahama Island. Both buildings face directly onto the water and enjoy private boat docks. They are also nestled around a pool and jacuzzi area in a lushly landscaped setting. The buildings themselves are five storeys high (with an elevator) and are designed in a Island Colonial style with soft pastel colours. Beneath this gentle look, concrete and steel construction - with impact-rated doors and windows, offer state-of-the-art storm protection. You are, after all, living in the tropics. The buildings feature 1-bed condominiums on the first floor, 3-bed condominiums on the second, third and fourth ...read more on our website.
