This Lot is situated on a sandy beach in the quaint Adelaide Village, a quiet close-knit community in southwest New Providence and stone's throw away from the world renown Albany Resort and just minutes from the new Windsor Lakes Development. Adelaide Village has maintained its charm and "Island flavour" and is far away from the hustle and bustle of the rest of New Providence. All utilities are available in the area and the roads are paved. Several attractive residences are there or under construction. Historical St. James Anglican Church is located in the Village as well as a popular restaurant. International Airport, Grocery Stores, Entertainment Venues, Shopping Centres are all minutes away by car. Offers are encouraged....read more on our website.
