The property is zoned for multi-family use. According to current government regulations, this zoning flexibility makes it perfect for a variety of housing designs, from townhouses to apartment units. With over half an acre of prime real estate, this lot provides ample space for designing and building a multi-family complex that maximizes both living space and aesthetic appeal. Take advantage of the growing demand for housing by creating a residential complex that meets modern standards. Whether you're planning to build affordable housing or luxury units, this lot offers the potential for substantial returns on investment. Just off Bacardi Road so it has easy access to the Gladstone Road corridor for travel to town and west also a great home site for airport, Lyford Cay, Albany workers et...read more on our website.
