Sought after and hard to find these days, a waterfront gem, under a million dollars, in Governor's Harbour. Dolphin House is nestled on a half acre parcel of beautiful, quiet, lush waterfront land. This lovely bungalow takes in vistas of the pristine Balara Bay. Facing towards the north-west, sunsets are wonderfully unavoidable. Wild dolphins regularly frequent the bay. A nearby natural bird sanctuary on Levy Island. Perfect for a small family, starting as a residence, for waterfront living, or a vacay get-a-way, for the restor investor. The near-retiree that wants to jet over in their boat, or plane, and enjoy coastal living at its finest in Governor's Harbour, Eleuthera. Two bedrooms, two baths, laundry room and small pump house under the stairs, perfect for a pool pump house. Ample...read more on our website.
