Step into the foyer of Vista Del Mar and marvel at the soaring 22-ft Cyprus ceiling, a testament to the home's majestic design. The living space seamlessly transitions into the spacious kitchen, boasting oak cabinets, a large island, and luxurious marble and Corian countertops. Entertaining is made easy with a private dining room that effortlessly flows into the outdoor covered dinette, creating an ideal ambiance for gatherings. The main house features a guest room and a primary bedroom adorned with French doors, allowing natural light and enchanting ocean vistas at every glance. Additionally, a private oasis awaits just adjacent to the main house, presenting a generously sized master suite complete with an en suite bathroom. The property also offers two separate bedroom suites with direct...read more on our website.
