With 200 feet facing the beautiful Bight of Eleuthera, also known as the Caribbean side, this 2-acre parcel north of the Governors Harbour airport would be a spectacular location for building a home and guest cottage. As it is on a gentle slope, the views especially from the top are magnificent and the cooling ocean breezes very welcome in the heat of the summer! Walk across the road and jump straight into the ocean! Close by is the quaint and charming settlement of James Cistern, where you can buy fresh fish at the dock or eat lunch and dinner at one of several beachfront cafes. This is a great location for exploring the island, with Gregory Town [home to the sweetest pineapples,] the famous Glass Window Bridge, and the islands of Spanish Wells and Harbour Island to the north. To the south...read more on our website.
