This home is located in possibly the quietest corner of the lovely neighborhood of Sea Breeze Estates on Sea Fan Drive. A little TLC may be needed but cushioned on a large 10,000-square-foot lot, with four bedrooms, four bathrooms and ample room to expand gives plenty of canvas to make this place your own. The layout can easily accommodate a multi-generational family or a guest suite and the backyard is a great spot for hosting family and friends. It's also only minutes away from everyday conveniences and most essential services. With an attractive price and plenty of upside, don't wait to make this your new address....read more on our website.
