Welcome to your harbour view oasis on Cupids Cay, where history meets modern luxury in this meticulously renovated 5 bedroom, 3 bath home overlooking the charming settlement of Governor's Harbour. Steeped in rich Bahamian heritage, Cupids Cay boasts a collection of historic buildings where families have resided for generations. Notably, it's home to the first seat of parliament and across from The White House, site of the first US embassy in The Bahamas. This coveted location is a testament to the area's significance and promises a lifestyle infused with cultural richness and timeless allure. Completely renovated in 2022, this home has been transformed into a masterpiece of design and craftsmanship. The new owner poured their heart and soul into this project, infusing every corner with a b...read more on our website.
