Come & explore this delightful beach villa! In the quieter section of the Beach Villas development on the western perimeter Beach Road this property combines peace and tranquility along with close access to Treasure Cay Beach which is only a 2 minute walk away. With only one neighbour to the south the partially covered wraparound porch and patio faces west and north guaranteeing your privacy for morning coffee or sundowners. As this villa occupies a lot and a half there is plenty of space to add on another living area or guest bedroom. The living space is already roomy with a Bahama room/dining area just beyond the family room. Beach Villas make excellent 'starter' investment properties as well as comfortable retirement homes and are extremely low maintenance. The community is very well ma...read more on our website.
