It's only a comfortable 3 minute stroll from Beach Villa 615 to the sun loungers by the community pool and another 15 second walk from the pool area to the fine white sand of Treasure Cay Beach and the thatched umbrellas (spaced well apart for privacy) where you can soak in the sounds of the surf and breathe in The Bahamas' clean, salty air - known for its healing properties! This villa has a newly paved wraparound patio which stretches from the living area/front door around to the master bedroom and is surrounded by a dense casuarina privacy hedge. The interior of the villa has been completely retiled, its 'faux driftwood' look in keeping with the island feel which the Beach Villas are known for. The kitchen has been renovated with new neutral toned countertops, backsplash & cabinetry and...read more on our website.
