Welcome to this spacious home in the gated community of Fox Hill Creek, nestled along historic Eastern Road. This unique property sits on 20,000 sq. ft. of land with 80 feet of bulkhead, perfect for boat owners. Designed with coastal aesthetic, this three-level home features custom-made wooden furniture and finishes. The mid-level living room area is filled with natural light, thanks to sliding glass doors that lead to a large porch with creek views. The living room flows into the formal dining area and a kitchen with a breakfast nook and laundry, connected to the parking area. The upper-level master suite is a two-level retreat with an office and private patio. Two guest rooms are also on this level. The lower level includes an in-law apartment with a kitchen and its own entrance and patio...read more on our website.
