This oceanfront property (3500 sq. feet on .76 acres) is situated on a vast bay with an expansive view of the ocean on South Andros Island, Bahamas. The two-story houses offer a variety of living options: spacious year-round homes for family & guests, a winter residence/retreat, a forever fly-fishing destination, or a rental income-producing property. If you are considering possibilities beyond family living or vacation home, such as earning income from guests or long-term rentals, this is the place for you! In addition, this location is perfect for fly-fishing, offering residence or lodging for the serious bone fishing enthusiast's friends and family. The property is situated on hard-to-find real estate with a very wide bay, offering enough depth for boat anchorage, shallow enough for bon...read more on our website.
