Tucked in the peaceful enclave of Oleander Gardens near Gregory Town, this residential lot is set on a gentle slope, with native palms and lush island foliage, the lot sits at a comfortable elevation, with not so distant vistas of the Atlantic, and on the Bight from a second story. With underground utilities and effortless access, it's just minutes from the North Eleuthera Airport, ferry terminals to Harbour Island, and nearby natural attractions—think hidden blue holes, turtle-feeding coves, and quiet beaches. A sandy-bottomed bay within the community is ideal for a tranquil swim when the sea is calm, framed by crystal-clear waters and gentle coastal beauty. This established neighborhood sits beside one of Eleuthera's most discreet boutique resorts, a favorite of artists, creatives,...read more on our website.
