Priced to Sell! This prime 5-acre open-zoned parcel is ideally situated along the 3-mile stretch between Palmetto Point and Savannah Sound in Central Eleuthera. 374 linear feet on the Queen's Highway, it offers excellent visibility and frontage for commercial use, while the depth of the lot makes it perfect for developing multi-family housing at the rear. Whether you're looking to build retail, offices, apartments, or a combination of both, this versatile property is a smart investment in one of the island's steadily growing areas. Just minutes from Governor's Harbour—the central hub for banking, groceries, the airport, and other key services—this location strikes the right balance between convenience and future opportunity. Utilities are on the highway at the lot. The gorgeous...read more on our website.
