This 2-bedroom, 2.5-bathroom condominium at Port of Call Villas is a unique investment opportunity within an outstanding oceanfront community. Situated in the popular Bahama Terrace subdivision, this unit is priced to sell as a true fixer-upper. This is your chance to acquire a property with a proven rental history and location, but without the premium price tag.

Priced to allow for a full renovation, this unit is an excellent way for a new owner to add their personal touch and create a custom space that aligns with their vision. This renovation opportunity not only allows you to build immediate equity but also ensures the final product is exactly what you or a future tenant desires. Even as you plan your upgrades, youâ€™ll still enjoy all the community has to offer, including th...read more on our website.
