Positioned in one of the most naturally beautiful and culturally rich enclaves of the Abacos, this 1.537-acre off-grid property in Little Harbour presents a unique opportunity for the eco-conscious investor or lifestyle builder. With 97 feet of protected waterfrontage and lush native vegetation, the land offers both privacy and the potential for a thoughtfully designed, sustainable retreat. Easily accessible by land or sea, the property is located just steps from Peteâ€™s Pub and Galleryâ€"an iconic outpost of art, food, and island lifeâ€"and only a short 5-minute drive to the peaceful settlement of Cherokee Sound. Boaters will appreciate the proximity to the sheltered anchorage and the open waters beyond, while nature lovers will relish the untouched surroundings and self-sufficient possi...read more on our website.
