Gone Bananas is a refined island retreat on Lubbers Quarters, offering a rare opportunity within the exclusive Abaco Ocean Club. This two-story residence blends Bahamian charm with modern comfort and sits on a 20,000 sq. ft. double lot with excellent potential for a pool, guest cottage, or expanded outdoor living. The bright open layout features island-inspired furnishings, a fully equipped kitchen with new appliances, and two ensuite bedrooms. Outdoor living shines with a spacious wrap-around porch and an elevated lookout tower capturing panoramic views of the Sea of Abaco. With a durable Bermuda roof, lush landscaping, and access to a peaceful boating community, Gone Bananas is an exceptional property for those seeking a private island home or investment in Bahamas luxury real estate.
