Welcome to a one-of-a-kind island escape, 28 acres of sea-to-sea paradise on the breathtaking island of Eleuthera, featuring a charming beach cottage and over 26 acres of untouched natural land stretching from the calm turquoise Caribbean Sea to the ever-changing beautiful blues of the Atlantic Ocean. The heart of the property is Misson Bay, a delightful 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom cottage elevated to capture sea breezes and sweeping sunset views over the Caribbean. Designed for barefoot comfort and coastal charm, the cottage features an open-plan kitchen, living, and dining space, a covered porch for shaded lounging, and an outdoor shower—perfect for rinsing off after a day at the beach or an evening swim. Modern conveniences blend seamlessly with rustic island living, including air condition...read more on our website.
