The Sea of Abaco is your front yard at Fishermanâ€™s Paradise, a waterfront retreat set within the peaceful community of Mount Hope, North Abaco. A private, well-protected canal and boat basin provides secure mooring and access to some of Abacoâ€™s most celebrated boating and fishing grounds. Uninhabited cays, the third-largest barrier reef in the world, and proximity to renowned south-side bonefishing flats define the surrounding marine environment. Fishermanâ€™s Paradise is a two-bedroom, one-bathroom home offering privacy and seclusion in a low-density waterfront setting. The residence is currently off the grid, with utility infrastructure running parallel to the property, giving a buyer the option to maintain an independent lifestyle or tie into public utilities. The location benefits ...read more on our website.
