Experience the pinnacle of island living in this expansive 4th-floor corner residence at Suffolk Court, completed in 2009. Spanning a generous 2,251 square feet of interior space, this meticulously upgraded condo offers high ceilings and the rare luxury of ocean views from every single window. The thoughtful layout includes two large bedrooms and a versatile den that is currently set up as an office but can easily be converted into a third bedroom. The heart of this home is the seamless transition to the oversized 448-square-foot terrace, which is accessible from both the main living area and the primary bedroom. From this vantage point, you can take in the breathtaking turquoise waters and keep an eye on your private, deeded boat slip. The slip is a boaterâ€™s dream, featuring a recent...read more on our website.
