Located in Sandy Point, San Salvador, these two adjoining lots create one of the last remaining undeveloped oceanfront estate lots along this stretch of the western leeward coast. Elevated on a small point, the property captures a sweeping 180-degree ocean view, constant sea breezes and exceptional privacy. The property offers a rare natural feature—a hole in the coastal rock—that provides access to a secluded private beach below. This unique setting offers an outstanding opportunity to create a private island retreat or luxury vacation residence in one of San Salvador's most peaceful and unspoiled locations....read more on our website.
