Located within the gated community of Venice Bay, The Rock House is a distinctive residence known for its striking stone interior and unique character. Offering generous living spaces and exceptional entertainment features, this home is ideal as a primary residence, investment property, or private retreat. Convenience is at the forefront, with a second-floor kitchen located just off the primary suite. Expansive balconies span the home, creating seamless access to natural light, refreshing breezes, and outdoor living. The largest balcony overlooks the backyard and provides a cool, covered vantage point of the pool, grotto, and koi pond. On the ground level, a covered patio adjacent to the pool offers an additional space for relaxation and entertaining. Both second-floor bedrooms feature spa...read more on our website.
