Available now for long-term rental at $10,000 per month with a six-month minimum stay, Villa Serenity is a fully furnished beachfront compound on the white sand of Cape Santa Maria, Long Island – the quietest of the major Bahamian out-islands. The property comprises two structures. The main villa offers three bedrooms and three bathrooms across two levels, with two living rooms, a separate dining room, a dedicated media room, two fully equipped kitchens, and twin upper-level balconies framing the turquoise water. A separate guest house – fully self-contained with its own kitchen, living room, bedroom and bathroom – provides the kind of breathing room that a six-month stay actually requires. Families spread out. Visiting friends have their own front door. A home office stays a home of...read more on our website.
