Exceptional development opportunity in one of Eastern New Providence's fastest-growing communities. This oversized 20,200 sq. ft. multi-family lot offers excellent potential for developers, investors, or buyers seeking to build income-producing rental units, townhomes, or a boutique residential development. Ideally positioned off Hanna Road, the property enjoys water views and a highly desirable location near the renowned Palm Cay Marina, shopping plazas, grocery stores, restaurants, schools, beaches, and other everyday conveniences. An existing foundation for a triplex is already in place, providing a valuable head start for your project and reducing initial development costs. Surrounded by established and emerging residential communities, this property combines strong investment potential...read more on our website.
