Gaze, play, and unwind at the palatial Sand Bank Beach Villa, positioned along the beachfront of Harbour Island's famous stretch of Pink Sands, has a design that utilizes Bahamian colonial-era forms and natural materials to conceive a house that reflects the islands sense of place. An Ipe-wood shutter system & decks, which wraps around the upper and lower floors. A breezy indoor-outdoor living room. The white stucco interior walls of the building's concrete-block core are surrounded by living-space-extending porches. With its hardwood beams, rafters, floors and window elements exposed, the space has a decidedly architectural design. This beachfront retreat was designed to be a place where nature becomes familiar and combines intelligent design with a sophisticated yet relaxed beach house a...read more on our website.
