Perched along the lush, green shoreline of Lubbers Quarters, Seaclusion is a quintessential Out Island sanctuary offering total privacy without sacrificing convenience. This charming four-bedroom home captures sweeping views of the Sea of Abaco, blending classic island characterâ€"warm wood paneling, cooling tile floors, and sunlit open living spaces. Floor-to-ceiling glass doors draw the ocean breezes inside, opening to shaded pergola decks, an elevated observation lookout, and a sprawling stone sea-wall patio made for lazy afternoons in the sun. Below, a long private wooden dock stretches into clear, shallow waters, providing seamless boat access and a launch point for adventure. Whether you are taking a quick boat ride over to Sea Spray or Firefly for dinner, visiting the historic Hope ...read more on our website.
