Tucked just off Eastern Road, this 1.28-acre property delivers the kind of quiet, elevated living that's hard to find so close to the city. With water views stretching out from the hilltop, it's the setting more than the square footage that makes this one special. The main house spans 4 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms, catching the morning light and sea breeze from its elevated position. Two separate 1-bedroom cottages sit on the grounds, well suited for hosting guests, running short-term rentals, or giving extended family their own space. Set high enough for privacy and unobstructed views, yet minutes from everything Nassau has to offer, this property leaves room to shape it around what you actually need. Family compound, rental income, or a project to make your own, this parcel gives you the sp...read more on our website.
