This charming home, nestled in the picturesque settlement of Sunset Point, Fresh Creek, on the island of Andros, offers a unique opportunity for island living. With a solid, well-built structure, the property spans just under an acre and boasts stunning views of the serene waters and Fresh Creek. The interior of the home features solid wood finishes, cedar closets, and spacious en-suite bedrooms, providing both privacy and comfort—ideal for Airbnb guests. The double-car garage offers ample space, while the separate driveway with a boat ramp allows easy access to the water. Outdoor living is a breeze with a low-maintenance yard, a swimming pool, and nearby bonefish flats for the avid fisherman. While the home could use a little freshening up, its potential is undeniable. Whether you're se...read more on our website.
