

Lots/Acreage in Elbow Cay

Lots/Acreage in Abaco

Cook's Cove could be considered the "triple threat" of real estate, offering: (1) a whopping 908 linear ft. of waterfront, (2) protected, deep-water, private marina, and (3) a private beach on the leeward side. The property is functionally exceptional, esthetically phenomenal, and rich in historical content. In the 1950s CG McLaren, Executive VP of Owens-Illinois, led the pulpwood operations in Snake Cay, Abaco. Mac visited Elbow Cay, & purchased several parcels to create this mariner's dream. Allegedly, the cove was found marked on charts belonging to Captain Cook, and thus named Cook's Cove. In the 60s Mac dredged the cove and had a sea wall built. It was a huge undertaking. Later the land was passed to his daughter, Kathryn. In the 70s Kathryn and her husband, Dr. Pr...read more on our website.
