Single Family Home in Abaco

Dun Lough is a newly built 1,500-sq. ft. steel-frame home featuring 3 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms located in the quiet subdivision of Buttonwood Bay in the heart of Elbow Cay in Abaco. True to its name which means "High Place" in Scottish, Dun Lough is situated on an elevated lot that offers water views from the bright and airy main floor of the house which consists of an open plan layout where the kitchen, dining, and living rooms flow seamlessly together maximizing gathering and entertainment space. Long vertical windows and soft hues enhance this flow-through living space to best capture natural light and ceilings and floors are Georgia cypress and Canadian red pine, respectively, further enhancing the home's chic rustic feel. This open gathering space is bookended by an en-suite mas...read more on our website.
