Buttonwood Bay lot 41 offers a tranquil setting in a quiet neighborhood on Elbow Cay, Abaco. With its just over a quarter-acre size and dock access (should be built back within the year) on the Sea of Abaco. The fact that building plans have been approved for the lot indicates that it's ready for development, and the prospect of having a second story with views to the south of the Sea of Abaco suggests the potential for breathtaking vistas. Moreover, the convenience of being close to restaurants, shopping, and ocean beaches, all accessible via a short golf cart ride, adds to the appeal of the location. And with amazing sunsets to enjoy from the community dock, residents are treated to a picturesque backdrop for relaxation. Additionally, the proximity of the Town of Hopetown, just a 10-minu...read more on our website.
