

HIGH CAY

Perhaps once in a lifetime comes a chance to own a timeless piece of History. The white cliffs of High Cay on the ocean side were the first sighting of land by Christopher Columbus in 1492 on his historic journey of discovery. High Cay is a peaceful and secluded private island located just off the south east coast of San Salvador and is surrounded by crystal clear turquoise waters forming a wonderful protected area between the beaches of San Salvador and High Cay - an ideal playground for water-sports including kite-boarding, sailing, or jet skiing....read more on our website.
