There is no better description of this spectacular estate than its name. With its pink sand beach and swaying coconut trees that lie just below you, this exclusive property on the east side of mainland Eleuthera is the epitome of bliss and tranquility. From expansive ocean views and of French Leave Beach to extremely durable and long-lasting construction and immaculately manicured lush tropical gardens, spending time at this picture-perfect island oasis makes you feel like you really are on Cloud Nine. Situated on just over one acre this 4-bedroom, 5-bathroom compound provides the ultimate secluded retreat for a family and visiting guests. Uniquely designed with the main house having only one primary suite on the second floor and a wide-open great room with 9-foot ceilings on the main floor...read more on our website.
